Visiting Story

On _____ I will be going to Redcliffe Art Gallery.

Redcliffe Art Gallery is a welcoming place where I can experience artworks by Australian artists and do art activities. The gallery is always free to visit. It is open Tuesday to Saturday from 10 AM to 4 PM. It is closed on public holidays.

Acknowledgement of Country

I will see the Acknowledgement of Country inside the entrance to Redcliffe Art Gallery. The gallery is on the land of the Kabi Kabi people. City of Moreton Bay acknowledges the Kabi Kabi as well as the Jinibara and Turrbal peoples and pays respects to Elders, past, present, and emerging.

The Foyer

The gallery has two exhibition spaces. There are doors into these spaces.

To the left of the foyer there is an entrance to Gallery 1 and 2.

To the right of the foyer there is an entrance to Gallery 3 and 4. In Gallery 3 and 4, I can find an exhibition called Joe Furlonger: Horizons.

The Exhibition

This is a solo exhibition featuring artworks by local artist Joe Furlonger. Since the 1980s, he has been a well-known and respected painter, often working on a large scale. Furlonger grew up in the Moreton Bay region and many of his works features this area.

The exhibition includes landscapes and figurative paintings as well as some ceramic pieces.

I can move through this exhibition in any way I like. There are benches in the exhibition where I can sit down. I will take my time to walk around the space and see the works in front of me.

Visual

The lighting in this exhibition is dimly lit with artificial lights that shine onto the artworks.

Here are some photos of the light levels in the exhibition space:

There is one video which plays on a screen in Gallery 3. There are no unexpected flashing lights in the video, only documentary style clips of the artist and his artworks.

This is where the video is located:

Smells

There are no strong smells in this exhibition.

Sounds

The only sound in this exhibition comes from the video in Gallery 3. I can hear soft instrumental music and spoken excerpts from interviews with the artist.

If I am sensitive to sounds like this I can avoid this room or place some noise-cancelling headphones on.

Touch

Even though some of the artworks look fun to touch and play with, I cannot touch any of the artworks in this exhibition. If I want to interact with the exhibition further, I can go to the Studio area to do activities

The Gallery

These are some photos of what the inside of the gallery looks like, so I can prepare before my visit.

The Studio

In this area I can participate in different activities and view artworks from the 15 Young Artists exhibition. I can see artworks hanging on the walls and sculptures displayed on plinths on the floor.

Even though some of the artworks look fun to touch and play with, I cannot touch any of the artworks in this exhibition. If I want to interact with the exhibition further, I can participate with the activities on the tables in this area.

This is what the artworks on display look like:

On the tables in the middle of the Studio, I can participate in art making activities. It can get busy here, especially during school holidays and weekends. The quietest times to visit are weekdays in the afternoon (1-3pm). I can also wear noise-cancelling headphones to help me.

Sometimes the studio is closed for workshops and the activities move to the foyer space. These activities are always available and free. Here is what the studio looks like:

The Gift Shop

The gift shop is in the foyer, beside the front desk. The shop sells high quality, local and Australian handmade products, and books. The products are made by local artists and makers from Moreton Bay and surrounds.

The Courtyard

The courtyard is an enclosed outdoor space with tables and chairs. There are some shady areas and plants. The ground is made of pavers and concrete and sometimes it is hot.

I can enter the courtyard through an automatic glass door in the foyer beside the gift shop. I can also enter the courtyard through a sliding glass door in the studio.

Things to do

The gallery hosts lots of different kind of events or activities. Some of the fun things you can go to at the Gallery are:

Exhibition openings: These are when the gallery celebrates a new exhibition with morning or afternoon tea, guest speakers and other events depending on what the exhibition is about.

Art workshops: There are different workshops organised for adults and children throughout the year.

Artist talks: The gallery likes to invite experts to come to the gallery and discuss different topics relevant to the exhibitions.

Group tours: The gallery caters for groups to have personal tours of the exhibitions and has daily 30-minute tours at 11AM.

I can ask gallery team members for more information about any of these events or check the gallery website.

Where can I go if I need more information
