Visiting Story

On _____ I will be going to Caboolture Art Gallery.

Caboolture Art Gallery is a welcoming place where I can experience artworks by Australian artists and do art activities. The gallery is always free to visit. It is open Tuesday to Saturday from 10 AM to 4 PM. It is closed on public holidays.

Acknowledgement of Country

I will see the Acknowledgement of Country inside the entrance to Caboolture Art Gallery. The gallery is on the land of the Kabi Kabi people. The City of Moreton Bay acknowledges the Kabi Kabi as well as the Jinibara and Turrbal peoples and pays respects to Elders, past, present, and emerging.

The Exhibition

Through the gallery's glass sliding doors, I will find myself in a large exhibition space. The main gallery has one large exhibition space that changes layout for each exhibition. It is a big space with a wooden floor that looks like this.

In the exhibition, Spirits in the Ink I can look at a wide variety of prints hanging on the walls, some are small, some are large, some are black and white, and some are colourful!

Spirits in the Ink explores art made by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists from Far North Queensland. The artists use printmaking to show their love and connection to Country.

I can move through this exhibition in any way I like.

There are benches in the exhibition where I can sit down.

I will take my time to walk around the space and see the works in front of me.

Visual

The lighting in this exhibition is dim. The only lights that are on, shine on the artworks.

There are no flashing or flickering lights in this exhibition.

Smells

There are no strong smells in this exhibition.

Sounds

There are no loud or unexpected sounds in the exhibition.

Touch

I cannot touch artworks in the exhibition. If I want to interact with the exhibition, I can go to either the Long Gallery space to do activities.

These are some photos of what the inside of the gallery looks like, so I can prepare before my visit.

There are two other spaces where I can go within the gallery.

Long Gallery Space

The Long Gallery space is interactive, and I can participate in different activities.

The Hub Gallery

The Hub Gallery is located next to the front desk. Local artists show their artworks in here. It is often one of the first places I will visit when I come to the gallery.

Things to do

The gallery hosts lots of different kind of events or activities. Some of the fun things you can go to at the gallery are:

Exhibition openings: These are when the gallery celebrates a new exhibition with morning or afternoon tea, guest speakers and other events depending on what the exhibition is about.

Art workshops: There are different workshops organised for adults and children throughout the year.

Artist talks: The gallery likes to invite experts to come to the gallery and discuss different topics relevant to the exhibitions.

Group tours: The gallery caters for groups to have personal tours of the exhibitions in the different spaces.

Sensory tours: The gallery offers sensory tours that encourage visitors to experience art through all senses, including sight, touch, sound, smell and taste.

I can ask gallery team members for more information about any of these events or check the gallery website.
